Contempt Petition No.386 of 2006
Hon'ble B.S. Verma, J.

Sri Gajendra Tripathi, learned counsel made a statement on behalf of the respondents that the special appeal was challenged before the Apex Court. The S.L.P. has been admitted by the Hon'ble Apex Court and operation of the order impugned was stayed.

In view of the facts above, the contempt petition is dismissed as infructuous.

However, after the decision of the civil appeal, which is pending before the Apex Court, if the cause of action arises, the petitioner may file a fresh contempt petition.

(B.S. Verma, J.)

25.4.2007
VKS